Confidentiality

We will treat your complaint in a confidential manner and consistent with the Australian Privacy Principles. Should you not wish to have your complaint information shared with particular staff or representatives we will respect and adhere to such requests where reasonably practicable to do so.

Our Complaints Handling ProcessStep 1 – Contact your Account Manager

If you would like to make a complaint or provide feedback, contact your designated Account Manager. Inform your Account Manager about your complaint and they will endeavour to resolve any issue you may have.

If you are unable to contact your Account Manager or choose not to, you may contact Metrix Connect and direct your complaint or feedback to the Complaints Manager.

We will formally acknowledge your complaint within 24 hours or as soon as practical. We will endeavour to resolve your complaint within 5 days.

If you are satisfied with our response within 5 days, then we will consider the complaint resolved and no further action or correspondence will be required from you or us.

Where our staff or representatives are unable to resolve the complaint within 5 days, they will escalate the matter to our Internal Dispute Review process and they will advise you accordingly.

Step 2 Internal Dispute Review (IDR) and review by our Complaints Manager

If your complaint is referred to the Metrix Connect Internal Dispute Review process our Complaints Manager will acknowledge your complaint within 24 hours or as soon as practical.

If your complaint is referred to the Metrix Connect Internal Dispute Review process our Complaints Manager will acknowledge your complaint within 24 hours or as soon as practical.

Our Complaints Manager will investigate the circumstances giving rise to the complaint, what remedies may be reasonable in the circumstances, and negotiate a resolution with you.

It is our objective to have all complaints raised with our Complaints Manager resolved within 15 business days of you referring the complaint to our Complaints Manager. If your complaint is complex or if circumstances arise beyond Metrix Connect's control, it may take longer than 15 business days to resolve your complaint. In this case, our Complaints Manager will contact you to agree on a timeframe for resolution.

Our Complaints Manager will regularly update you on the progress of your complaint.

At the end of the process, we will provide you with a formal response detailing the decision that we have made regarding your complaint and the reasons for our decision.

Step 3 – External Dispute Resolution - AFCA

If you are dissatisfied with the final outcome of your complaint issued by Metrix Connect, in certain cases, you may be able to refer your complaint to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA).

AFCA is an independent external dispute resolution scheme approved by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) and its services are free to you. Metrix Connect is a member of this scheme and we agree to be bound by its determination about a dispute.

It is important to note that before AFCA can investigate your complaint, they require you to have first provided Metrix Connect with the opportunity to address the complaint.

AFCA will typically be able to assist the majority of our clients with an unresolved complaint however please be mindful that:

There are time limits for lodging a dispute with AFCA. In most cases, you have two years to lodge a dispute with AFCA from the date of our final response.

Generally, AFCA will only address complaints from individuals and small businesses and will not address matters where legal proceedings have commenced.

Further details regarding AFCA can be obtained from their website, or alternatively you can contact AFCA as follows:

Australian Financial Complaints Authority
Mail: GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001
Phone: 1800 931 678 (9:00am to 5:00pm AEST/AEDT weekdays)
Email: info@afca.org.au
